To Appear In Costume

Mrs. Mary Emma Pearson one of Birmingham's most popular singers, whose lovely lyric soprano voice will be heard in an evening song to be given Monday evening by the Allied Arts Club at the home of Mrs. John Nyhoff at Idlewild. She will appear in costume.

Birmingham Music And Art

This department of the Age-Herald is devoted to chronicling the activities of Alabama's constantly increasing list of devotees of the Cultural Arts; conducted by Alice Graham.

THE outstanding musical event of the week will be the appearance here on Tuesday afternoon and evening of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, under the baton of the distinguished conductor, Fritz Reiner, at the municipal auditorium. This orchestra is touring the country this season with an aggregation of eighty-five men, probably the largest number of players ever brought to this city by an orchestra, and they are all musicians of high calibre, having been personally selected by Mr. Reiner, some from European orchestras, and others from the cities of America.

Special interest centers in the night performance, when they will render the great Cesar Franck Symphony in D minor. This will be the first time that this wonderful symphony has been given in Birmingham. Another very charming number on the program will be MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," the orchestration of which has just been completed. The night concert will be sponsored by the Birmingham-Southern college Glee club, who are making elaborate plans for a summer tour through the Canadian Rockies for next summer. Their tour of the west last summer proved so successful that they are encouraged to try another. A percentage of the receipts from the night concert will go towards defraying the expenses of this tour.

The afternoon concert has been given over to five thousand school children who will hear the program free of charge, through the generosity of a well known business man of Birmingham. This is indeed unusual liberality, and will go far toward encouraging the musical growth and progress of Birmingham. Great things may be expected of a city whose influential men take such an interest in making it possible for children to hear the fine things in music, and so develop taste for good music. Mr. Erickson expresses the hope that each year will afford at least one opportunity for the children to hear the great symphonies, for they will make up the symphony audiences in the future.

It will be recalled that Fritz Reiner is the conductor who created such a sensation in conducting the Stadium concerts in New York last summer.

Athens College Activities

Athens College for women, located at Athens, Ala., has a particularly efficient and active department of music, under the direction of Frank M. Church, who is also organist at the First Methodist church of that city.

A very large attended organ recital was given in this church on Sunday evening, November 30, by Prof. Church, assisted by Margaret Bostick, soprano, Mary Emma and Clara Nolen; a ladies sextet, composed of Mrs. Emma Beasley, Rollo, Sarrar, Scott, Nolen, Miss Mason; the First Methodist choir, and the Athens College Glee Club. The program included classic selections representative of the Italian, English and German schools, a Bach prelude and fugue, and an etude for pedal alone, by Frank M. Church. The sextet rendered Clokey's "Night Song," and the choir sang the anthem, "O Lord, I Come."

On Sunday evening, December 14, a recital of Christmas music will be given.

On Monday evening, December 1, a recital was given by the music department of the college, in the college auditorium, in which two Birmingham girls participated. They were Miss Julia Jeffries, who sang "Summer," by Chaminade; and Miss Robbie Redun, who played a composition by the distinguished Norwegian composer, Torjusen, entitled "Wallung."

Director Church announces a mid-winter concert on January 19 and the annual Bach concert for March 28. Students recitals are given once each month at the college.

Juvenile Club

The Junior Music Study Club will celebrate Alabama Day, December 14, with a sacred concert to be given in the auditorium of Louie Compton Seminary. The program will consist of organ, harp and vocal numbers. Some of Ferdinand Dunkley's song compositions will be sung. The opening song will be Alabama, words by Julia Tutwiler, and music by Edna Gockel Gussen, and the closing chorus will be "America, the Beautiful."

Miss Matilda Bilbro, Alabama composer, is expected to be present and a talk on sacred music will be a feature of the program.

The juniors held their first memory contest Saturday afternoon. They are very much alive and active this year, under the capable direction of Mrs. J. W. Luke, and her assistants, Misses Abigail Crawford and Alice Graham.

Misses Mary and Julia Bowers of Santa Barbara, Cal., will be among the out of town guests at the Hammond-Bowers wedding December 13.

Mrs. W. E. Gupion and children of Nashville will arrive Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis.

Mrs. J. B. Conyers and small daughter, Madge Pollock, will arrive soon to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. George Pollock.

Mrs. Lloyd Noland has returned from New York.

Miss Virginia Foster is visiting Miss Margaret Yeager in Knoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Shook and Miss Margaret Shook will spend Christmas in Nashville as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Price. Miss Mary Hannel Shook will be with her cousin, Miss Lucy Eastwood, during their absence.

December 2. His program on this occasion was presentations and varied, opening with the Grand Suite for Organ, by Dubois, and continuing with selections from Richard Wagner, Saint-Saens, a group by composers belonging to the Neo-Modern French school, a classic group by Schubert, Godard, Gabrielle-Marie, and Greig, including the Peer Gynt Suite.

Of special note was his own beautiful improvisation in Rondo form, on the Christmas hymn, "Adesete Fideles." He also gave improvisations upon popular hymns as requested by the audience. The Press of Lakeland, and Tampa praised Professor De Launay's playing in the highest terms. He is a graduate of the Conservatory of Music, Paris, France.

Music Teachers Association

The Music Teachers association convened at the Southern club on Wednesday, the business meeting being followed by a luncheon. Mrs. G. Houston Davis was made chairman of a committee to revise the constitution, and serving with her will be Mrs. J. W. Luke and Miss Pearl Rosenfield. The president, Miss Abigail Crawford, appointed a committee that will be termed the complaint committee, to which may be referred for adjustment and infringement of the rules regarding music pupils and teachers, already adopted and distributed by the members of the Birmingham Music Teachers association, and any problems that may confront the teacher in her relations with pupils and parents.

Mrs. Grace McCoy Redburn is chairman of this committee, with Misses Doris Herman, Cornelia Perryman, Mrs. Allgood, and Mrs. C. W. Phillips. Mrs. E. T. Rice made an announcement about the State Student contest, and asked the co-operation of teachers. Mrs. George Houston Davis told of the national contest for young musicians, between the ages of twenty and thirty. The prizes will be $500 in cash, or a scholarship for one on one of the leading conservatories, Boston, Cincinnati, Philadelphia. The contest will be held in March.

Miss Kitts spoke of the conference of music supervisors, and asked for the support and co-operation of the Music Teachers association. The association will co-operate with any movement to erect a studio building.

Dr. Roy E. Hoke delivered another of his series of lectures on Psychology, the subject on this occasion being "Glands," and the lecturer said they affected, even controlled, personality. The talk was unusually interesting and illuminating, and Dr. Hoke held the rapt attention of his audience.

Allied Arts Club To Meet

The meeting of the Allied Arts club tomorrow evening will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Nyhoff in Idlewild Circle, when a costume recital by Mrs. T. O. Simmons (Mary Emma Pearson), will be the feature of the evening. Mrs. Simmons has given this recital both in Cullman and Alexander City, with great success. Her first group will be modern American songs, given in modern costume.

In the second group she will appear in Martha Washington costume for songs of an older period. The third group will be Indian songs, the songs of Lianrean, Troyer, and Cudman, sung in Indian costume. The entire program will be all-American.

Miss Beverly Hester will play the accompaniments, and also several instrumental solos.

On last Monday evening the club greatly enjoyed the reading by Mrs. A. S. Keith of Artemus Calloway's clever can songs, given in modern costume. In the second group she will appear in Martha Washington costume for songs of an older period. The third group will be Indian songs, the songs of Lianrean, Troyer, and Cudman, sung in Indian costume. The entire program will be all-American.

Here Is Bridge Problem To Test Your Playing Skill

(This problem is presented for the edification of all readers who are interested in Bridge. Solutions may be mailed to Mr. Lenz in care of this newspaper. This greatest of bridge authorities will either reply personally or else you will find your solution comes under a general consideration which may be given in these columns. Solutions should be mailed to reach this office not later than Friday.)

DON'T BE A GECK!
Is your bridge game good, bad or just so-so? If you believe that you play well, here is a chance to prove it.

Playing in a tournament, "The Champeen", sitting in the South position, secured the contract at "Four Hearts, Doubled and Redoubled."

When the play had progressed to the last six tricks, he required four of them to fulfill his contract. Of course, the hands were not played openly, only the Dummy being exposed, but to make it easy, you are asked to play "Double Dummy"—all the cards shown and take in four of the six tricks against the best defense of the East and West players. The lead is in the North hand and hearts are trumps.

If you can do it you will be as good as "The Champeen."

The names of the winners, together with the correct solution, will be published in next Sunday's Age-Herald. Here are the cards:
